CARING CONVERSATION:

Discuss in your household or small group:

- What makes you feel loved? How do you show love to others?
- Read Matthew 22:37-39. How can you love God with your heart? With your mind? With your soul?
- What does it mean to “love others as much as you love yourself”?

DEVOTIONS:

Sometimes people asked Jesus difficult questions, and sometimes he posed hard questions to them (Matthew 22:34-36, 41). Give each household member an opportunity to write down any “hard questions” they have related to the Bible or the Christian faith. In your home devotional times this week, discuss each question in turn. If you struggle to find answers, make a plan to find out more (e.g. borrow some books, explore the internet, ask your pastor or a church friend for help).

SERVICE:

In 1 Thessalonians 2:1-7, the apostle Paul writes about the ministry of the apostles in Thessalonica. Though many people were against them, they shared the Good News of Jesus Christ with boldness. This week pray by name for the pastors and other church workers in your local community. Ask God to give them courage and to help them live good and faithful lives. Plan an act of encouragement for one of them.

RITUALS AND TRADITIONS:

The apostle Paul shared not just the good news of Jesus but his life with the people of Thessalonica, because he loved them so much (see 1 Thessalonians 2:8). A key way we can share our lives with others is by inviting people into our homes on a regular basis. A tradition of home hospitality is not only a good means of service and witness to others; it also helps to develop positive community connections and supports for household life. Look together at your household calendar. Set aside times during the coming months when you can have others join you in your home for a meal. Begin to arrange invitations to send out.
